I was also kind of surprised at how far back the game went in time; it was created back in 2001, which I know is quite a long time ago. It's kind of scary how quickly things have changed since then. But though I am young, I thought that Minecraft was always meant for little kids; unlike Roblox, it wasn't purchased by me or my parents, and there were no advertisements present. So my opinion on both games is that they are really great for little kids because they're safe and easy to use. For adults, they are not worth the time. But from what I have heard, and from my own experiences, Roblox is a game that all kindergartners should be playing. It's definitely not recommended for adults or even teenagers.

A game called "The Mad Murderer" has been criticized by Roblox users as being violent. The game allows players to kill other characters by using a knife or a gun. It was reported that German and French users discovered the game while they were in Las Vegas for a conference. In response, Roblox changed the coding of this game so that the users can only use the knife when playing the game, instead of using guns as well. Players who used guns on other players would be banned from Roblox. Roblox stated that they were "going to continue to refine the game".

Players could also get banned by moderators for sending unwanted messages to other users. A moderator could then ban a player's account for spamming other accounts or trying to bypass chat filters. There are other forms of trolling which can be found on Roblox today.

In 2021, ROBLOX released an entirely new logo based on the previous one: this iteration featured a black capitalized "R" on a white background. It was designed to feature the company's name without any visual association to the original logo. The previous logo is still in use today, albeit with a thicker frame.

Floating Balls! I have noticed that when you are at a group world and getting on people's chat heads they should be able to fly around like on normal. We need this because there are so many times where such a little bug would make these people mad if they were floating anywhere near them because they would not know what to say. Even though there are thousands of people in the group there should be more room for them to float. I think that there should be more than one chat head. I have seen people report this bug but it has not been fixed and I really want to see it fixed.
